We are unable to hold our annual "Friend Raising" Tea & Tulips event at Columbia Country Club this Spring.

In order to keep everyone safe, amid continuing concerns over the pandemic, we are asking you to participate in Tea & Tulips as a "Fund Raising" event. Your participation will help the Little Sisters of the Poor provide for and protect the needy aged women and men in their care.

Imagine the year the Sisters have just come through. Let's show them how much we care for them and help them with their precious and unique vocation. Your help is more important than ever due to the pressures caused by the ongoing pandemic including multiple quarantines, inadequate supplies, and infection fears. You can help the Sisters keep their Residents safe, healthy, and happy.

Every donation counts. All funds will support the daily needs of the Residents, including a safe home and loving home, healthy meals, enriching activities, medical support, and nursing care.

The Little Sisters are so very grateful to God that their congregation has had the joy for more than 150 years to be at service to some of this city's most vulnerable. The Sisters are committed to caring for Washington's needy elderly for many years to come. They can only do it with your help, and so very much appreciate your support, kindness, and continuing generosity.

While we look forward to resuming our tradition next year, we do not want to miss the opportunity to thank the Little Sisters for all they have done this year. To show your appreciation, we offer the following sponsorship levels:

- ___ I would like to support the Little Sisters of the Poor and their ministry to the elderly with a $_____ donation
