

June 17, 2022

As of today this week's test results for all Residents, staff and Sisters have been negative.

Some Residents have begun to come out of room isolation, although they are still asked to remain on their unit, and there is no congregate dining or group activities yet.

Keep up the prayers!